

January 11, 2005

Dear Sir or Madam:

Canadian Trade Mission to Hong Kong
Invitation to Information and Partnering Programs

To accentuate the importance of Sino-Canadian relations, the Honourable James Scott Peterson, the Canadian Minister of International Trade will be leading a trade delegation of some 100 companies to China in January. The trade delegation will visit the Hong Kong SAR on 22-25 January 2005.

On January 24, 2005 the Minister and his business delegation cordially invite you to participate in a one-day information and partnering program. This program will introduce the opportunities that exist in doing business with Canada. It will consist of seminars and networking functions, all taking place at the Grand Hyatt Hotel, with high level Hong Kong government representatives and business leaders in attendance.
